Our Leading Athletes

Join with other famous Americans in Praising Tuxedo Tobacco

OUR world-famous athletes—who triumphed for America at the Olympic Games in Stockholm—are among the thousands who declare that Tuxedo is not only extremely enjoyable, but beneficial.

Famous Americans in every walk of life—doctors, lawyers, actors, singers, public speakers, statesmen, business leaders—smoke and endorse

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo grew rapidly in public favor, and without advertising reached the stupendous total of fifty or sixty million packages a year. Not until the past few months could Tuxedo keep up with the demand. Now increased facilities permit every man to smoke this best of tobaccos.

Tuxedo is fine, ripened Burley tobacco of the highest grade—aged until thoroughly mild and mellow. Then treated by the famous "Tuxedo Process," that removes the last trace of "bite" and develops all the delicious Burley fragrance and flavor.

MARTIN SHERIDAN
"Tuxedo is a strong card with me. I advise all athletes to stick to Tuxedo. It is the one tobacco that will help them, keep them in trim, prevent them from going stale." Tuxedo leads—bar none.

GASTON STROBINO
"Tuxedo is the tobacco for the athlete. It never hurts my wind, and always steadies my nerves. Tuxedo for me."

MATT McGRATH
"No athlete need fear to smoke as much as he wants, if he uses Tuxedo. It's a general help to any man. A pipeful of Tuxedo put new life into me."

JEWELL IS 1914-15 MANAGER

Missourian Board Elects Officers for Next Year.

John W. Jewell, a junior in the School of Journalism, will be manager of the University Missourian next year. Mr. Jewell was elected this morning by the Missourian board of directors.

T. S. Hudson was chosen president of the board for next year. Fred Shoop was elected to the vacancy left by Mr. Jewell's resignation.

C. C. WINS AT TENNIS

Columbia Girls' School Defeats Howard-Payne 6-0, 6-0, 6-1.

Christina College won the intercollegiate tennis tournament cup at Fayette, Mo., yesterday. The game was played with Howard-Payne and the results of the three sets were 6-0, 6-0, 6-1.

Misses Frances Fleming and Florence Fenner represented Christian College. Mrs. Marion Hertig of Christian College accompanied the girls.

The Alumni Luncheon.

Every 1914 graduate should attend the annual Alumni Luncheon, to be held at Lathrop Hall immediately after the Commencement exercises June 4.

This is YOUR luncheon. It offers the first opportunity, and the LAST, for all the members of the class to get together as alumni. A liberal "spread" and rousing speeches by notable "grads," old and new, are assured. Miss Marguerite Jackson and George Willson will represent the class of 1914 on the program of toasts.

The number of plates is limited. The price to 1914 graduates is $1; to others, $1.50. Make your reservation now.

L. M. DeFOE, '86, in charge of luncheon.

N. T. GENTRY, '84, in charge of program.

CHARLES G. ROSS, '05, Alumni Secretary; Committee on Alumni Luncheon.

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY MEDICAL SCHOOL. The Washington University Medical School continues the work of the St. Louis Medical College, founded in 1842, and the Missouri Medical College, founded in 1840. With the aid of funds donated by philanthropic citizens of St. Louis the Medical School has been reorganized in all departments. An affiliation has been established between the Barnes Hospital and the St. Louis Children's Hospital and Washington University by which the University agrees to provide the medical staffs of the hospitals and the hospitals permit the University to use the institutions for purposes of teaching.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION. Candidates for entrance are required to have completed at least two full years of college work, which must include English, German and instruction with laboratory work in physics, chemistry and biology.

COURSES LEADING TO ACADEMIC DEGREES. Students in Washington University may pursue study in the fundamental medical science leading to the degree of A. M. and Ph. D.
